

11—10.8(8A) Customer input. The department shall establish procedures to provide for the acceptance of input from affected governmental entities. Input may take various forms, such as unsolicited comments, response to structured surveys, or an annual report on service requirements.